Of Special Interest This Week

+ Key elements of General Secretary Gorbachev's announcement extending the nuclear test moratorium were available to FBIS consumers two and a half hours before it was actually carried on Moscow TV. The FBIS London Bureau on 18 August monitored, printed out, and translated the announcement from the satellite-transmitted 19 August edition of PRAVDA. The television version of the speech was also monitored by FBIS using the Headquarters satellite dish and carried live on the OIR TV grid for interested analysts.
